

1st Annual Law Student Victims' Rights Panel

Law students are invited to submit abstract or presentation proposals addressing victims' rights for inclusion at the National Crime Victim Law Institute's Annual Crime Victim Law Conference in Portland, Oregon

RECOGNITION

- Up to 3 students from across the country will be selected to present on a panel at the 10th Annual Crime Victim Law Conference in Portland, Oregon.
- Conference tuition will be covered for those selected to participate on the panel.
- Selected students may also have their work published in one of NCVLI's nationally distributed publications.

DEADLINE

Extended - Monday, May 16, 2011 5:00 p.m. PST in electronic format to ncvli@clark.edu

CRIME VICTIM LAW CONFERENCE * JUNE 14-15, 2011 * PORTLAND, OREGON

The National Crime Victim Law Institute's annual Crime Victim Law Conference is the only national conference focusing on rights enforcement. The Conference brings together the leading academics and practitioners in the field of victims' rights. Possible topic areas include (but are not limited to) the following areas of crime victim law:

- Recent Supreme Court decisions affecting crime victims' rights;
- Unique issues confronting sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, and domestic violence victims' rights;
- Unique issues confronting the rights of child-victims;
- Serving underserved populations of crime victims;
- International crime victims' rights;
- Post-victimization trauma and tools for appropriate advocacy;
- Restitution;
- Victim privacy and confidentiality;
- The legal hurdles of double jeopardy, ripeness, and mootness;
- The intersection of victim privacy and media/public access (e.g., closing or limiting courtroom access, proceeding by pseudonym, sealing records);
- Fraud and identity theft; and
- Accommodations for victims to facilitate participation (e.g, support persons, alternative means of testifying, courtroom design).

GUIDELINES

- Submissions must analyze the legal rights of crime victims in the context of criminal investigations and prosecutions.
- Submissions should be no longer than 750 words (including footnotes), must be in Times New Roman, double-spaced with one-inch margins. Submission may be an excerpt of a larger paper.
- Submissions may not have been previously published or accepted for publication unless they are accompanied by written authorization for re-print.
- Authors/presenters must be enrolled in an ABA-accredited law school at the date of their submission or have graduated within the last 12 months.
- The transmittal email must include the following information:
 - Author Name.
 - Law School.
 - Date of (Anticipated) Graduation from Law School.
 - Mailing Address.
 - Email Address.
 - Phone Number.
 - Title of abstract/article/presentation.
 - Biography: (150 word maximum) If selected, this bio will be used by NCVLI in Conference materials. NCVLI may make non-substantive edits to the bio for formatting and marketing purposes.
- Submissions should be emailed to ncvli@lclark.edu by May 16, 2011 at 5:00 p.m. PST.
- Transportation and other fees associated with traveling to and from the conference will not be covered.
- Applicants selected to be on the panel shortly thereafter via email or phone.

Questions about the application process should be directed to Lisa Farrell at ncvli@lclark.edu or 503-768-6819 or 888-768-6556.

